

HAYS AREA CHAMBER OF COMMERCE HAYS AREA YOUNG PROFESSIONALS Bylaws

Article One Name

The Hays Area Young Professionals (hereinafter referred to as “HAYP”) is an organization that exists under the umbrella of the Hays Area Chamber of Commerce.

Article Two Governance

The Hays Area Chamber of Commerce Board of Directors (hereinafter referred to as “Board”) will be the governing board for the Hays Area Young Professionals. The Chamber staff will conduct and be responsible for day-to-day operations of HAYP.

Article Three Mission & Objectives

The mission of Hays Area Young Professionals is to promote the development, recruitment and retention of young professionals in the Hays area; to build a bond between the business community and young professionals; and to help make the Hays area the best place to live, serve, work and play.

The motto of HAYP is Engage. Grow. Connect. Objectives consist of:

- To develop the business skills of young professionals within the Hays area-
- To connect young professionals to other young professionals as well as veteran professionals who can provide guidance, advice, and resources in helping the individual grow personally and professionally
- To empower young professionals to make a difference in their workplaces and community through service and educational opportunities
- To retain young professionals through increased opportunities and resources to enhance their professional development and business success within the Hays area
- To promote goodwill, understanding, and confidence in the Hays Area Chamber of Commerce among young professionals in the area

Article Four Membership

Each member of HAYP shall be an individual who shares the goals of HAYP. Each member shall be encouraged to attend all HAYP meetings and events. Each member is highly encouraged to serve on one or more HAYP committees.

Goals:

- Promoting and reflecting community enthusiasm
- Providing opportunities for business networking
- Helping establish the next generation of leaders in the Hays area
- Offering ways for HAYPs to volunteer and give back to the community
- Aiding in efforts to recruit and retain young professionals to the Hays area
- To provide an information network that lets Chamber staff know of problems with members of HAYP so that the particular need of the individual can be addressed

A member in good standing is one who is current with regard to the following obligations of membership:

- Applications for membership shall be in writing, on forms provided for that purpose, and signed by the applicant and their employer. Any applicant shall become a member upon payment of the regularly scheduled dues. Members are required to pay annual dues, as set by the Board. HAYP dues will be used by the Hays Area Chamber of Commerce for operating expenses associated with HAYP.
- The ideal age for membership in the HAYP shall be 21 to 40 years of age. There is no maximum limit of the number of young professionals that can belong to HAYP.
- Any member in default in payment of dues may be suspended from all privileges of membership and shall be considered to be a member not in good standing. If, after notice, the default is not cured within a period of thirty (30) days, the membership of that member may terminate upon majority vote of the Board.
- Each member shall be entitled to one vote in person or vote by proxy, on each subject properly submitted for vote. In order to submit an item for a vote of the membership, it must be in writing and presented to the Chamber staff. The Chamber staff will present it to the Advisory Council which will then make a recommendation to the Board. The Board will approve an item for a majority vote of the HAYP organization.
- Any member may be removed from membership by a majority vote of the Board for conduct deemed prejudicial to HAYP, provided that the member shall have first been served with written notice of the accusations and shall have been given an opportunity to produce witnesses, if any, and to be heard at the regularly scheduled Board meeting at which the vote is taken.

Article Five Advisory Council

An Advisory Council will be established and will meet monthly, or on an as needed basis. The current edition of Roberts' Rule of Order shall be the final source of authority in all questions of parliamentary procedure when such rules are not inconsistent with the Charter or by-laws of the Chamber. Meetings and agendas will be coordinated by the Chamber staff and Advisory Council Chair. The Advisory Council will represent the general HAYP membership. Only one member per business may be represented on the Advisory Council. If an Advisory Council member makes a career change and another Advisory Council member is already representing that business, one of the two parties will need to submit their resignation to the Council. If a decision between the two parties cannot be reached, the first business representative shall remain on the Council with the second party submitting their resignation.

The Advisory Council shall share ideas, as well as guide and assist the HAYP organization in its endeavors. The Council and Committee Chairs will recommend direction to the Chamber staff on events and project ideas. The Council will provide feedback to the Chamber staff regarding how the organization is addressing issues pertaining to young professionals in the community. The Council will always support and uphold what is best for the HAYP organization and the governing body-of the Hays Area Chamber, the Board.

HAYP members will make nominations for members of the Advisory Council and members in good standing will vote for the Council members with a simple majority vote. The Advisory Council will consist of no fewer than seven and no more than nine members from the HAYP organization who are in good standing. Term limits will be three years in length. Each year, in September, names will be submitted for Council members. Annually, in \ October, an election will be held to vote for new members to be elected to the Advisory Council. Newly elected HAYP Council members will be invited to attend the November Advisory Council meeting before their official term commences. Elections for the Advisory Council Chair, Chair-Elect, and Secretary will occur at the November meeting. Newly elected Advisory Council members will not have voting privileges until their official term begins in January, except for the election of officers at the November meeting. No Advisory Council member who has served two consecutive three-year terms is eligible for election for a third term. Advisory Council terms shall begin on January 1 of each year. Vacancies on the Advisory Council, or among the officers, shall be filled by the Advisory Council, by a majority vote. Council members so appointed shall complete the unexpired term.

A member of the Advisory Council who is absent from two consecutive Council meetings without providing prior notification to the Chamber office or Advisory Council Chair, or absent from more than four council meetings in a calendar year, shall automatically be dropped from the Council. Vacancies on the Advisory Council shall be filled by the Advisory Council, by a majority vote. A Council member so appointed shall complete the unexpired term.

Article Six Committees

There are three committees within HAYP, including the Civic/Volunteer Committee, Member Development Committee, and the Social/Networking Committee.

- The Civic/Volunteer Committee is responsible for organizing opportunities and events to engage HAYP members to fulfill their civic duty by helping others in need. This group reaches out to various organizations requiring outside assistance and allows members to be involved through actions such as volunteerism and community awareness.
- The Member Development Committee hosts a variety of programs to ensure member engagement in professional development opportunities within the organization and the community. This team's activities support HAYP members with networking and leadership growth.
- The role of the Social/Networking Committee is to promote professional, relaxed, and enjoyable events for HAYP members to participate in throughout the year. These events allow members to connect in an informal and comfortable setting, while providing a variety of fun activities to participate in within the Hays community.

Article Seven Advisory Council Chairs and Committee Officers

The Advisory Council is comprised of seven to nine voting members, the Chair only votes in the case of a tie. Committee Chairs participate in Advisory Council meetings as non-voting members. Committee Chair-Elects will only participate in Advisory Council meetings in the absence of the Committee Chair. Only voting members are allowed to participate in the portion of any meeting when conducting Advisory Council member and officer elections. Committee Chairs will provide feedback on candidates at the request of the voting Advisory Council members.

Officers:

HAYP ADVISORY COUNCIL CHAIR

The Advisory Council Chair is appointed by the Council to serve as the single point of contact/liaison between the three HAYP committees and the Advisory Council to ensure delivery of a consistent message. The Advisory Council Chair facilitates all HAYP Membership Connection Lunches and Advisory Council meetings, including preparation of the meeting agendas, and delegate duties as necessary. A minimum of one year of service on the council is required to be eligible to serve as the Chair. The Chair shall only vote in the event of a tie. The Chair shall serve a one-year term only, which will commence on January 1st of each year and expire on December 31st of that same year, unless unforeseen circumstances occur. In the event the Chair is unable to fulfill his/her term and the Chair-Elect is unable to step into that role, the Chamber Executive Director shall appoint a new Chair mid-term.

HAYP ADVISORY COUNCIL CHAIR-ELECT

The Advisory Council Chair-Elect is appointed by the Council to serve all of the duties of the chair in his/her absence. The Chair-Elect will assume role of the Chair at the January meeting following his or her one-year term of Chair-Elect. A new Chair-Elect will be voted in by the Advisory Council annually at the November meeting. In the event the Chair-Elect is unable to fulfill his/her term, the Chamber Executive Director shall appoint a new Chair-Elect mid-term.

HAYP ADVISORY COUNCIL SECRETARY

The Advisory Council Secretary is appointed by the Advisory Council via a vote to document all HAYP and Advisory Council meetings through written record. The Advisory Council Secretary can delegate duties as necessary. A new Secretary will be voted on by the Advisory Council annually at the November meeting.

HAYP Committee Chair

Committee Chairs are responsible for creating agendas for their committee meetings and communicating project proposals and reports to the Advisory Council Chair monthly. Chairs should work to establish a Chair-Elect for their committees. Committee Chairs should serve a minimum of one-year term with a maximum of three years. If a Chair-Elect is unable to fulfill the role of Committee Chair or no Chair-Elect is in order, the Advisory Council will appoint an HAYP member in good standing to serve as Chair.

HAYP Committee Chair-Elect

The Committee Chair-Elect shall serve the duties of the Chair in his/her absence, including attending Advisory Council meetings. Chair-Elects will become the Committee Chair when the current Chair's term of one to three-year term expires, or if the Chair resigns from the position. The Chair-Elect will be approved by the Advisory Council.

Article Eight Code of Commitment

Each HAYP member must adhere to the following Code of Commitment:

- To be present (in person or electronically)
- To provide service, enthusiasm and skills
- To participate in meetings, events and activities
- To respond to communication as needed
- To meet deadlines for RSVPs on social events and other activities

The bylaws of the HAYP may be amended by the Board.
